NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE

Old clothing will soon have its day. The "worn-outs" are being remodeled and renovated. The reason for this is the "Hard Times" masquerade ball that Troop "C" is giving on New Year's Eve in the Armory.

The Sunshine Trio will put forth its best offerings in the line of up-to-date dance music. This alone guarantees the success of the event.

However, as an added attraction the boys are offering some fine gifts for the most reasonable costumes. Three disinterested parties will decide who should receive the gifts.

In addition to the above, a confetti battle will be staged at midnight.

While the lack of a mask or make-up will not bar anyone, it is suggested that everyone should add to the joy of the occasion by appearing in the oldest outfit they can find.

The grand march will start promptly at 8:45. BE THERE!

STOCKHOLDERS NOTICE

LIARS' CONTEST

All veterans of any war are liars, of course; veterans of the world war are conceded to be bigger liars, because they fought a greater war than has been.

Deming veterans claim that they have some of the champion liars of the A. E. F., which is probably true, in fact any member of the local American Legion post will modestly admit that he has told the biggest lie ever conceived by the brain of an imaginative doughboy.

At the last meeting of the post a hot argument arose as to who is the champion prevaricator; bets were placed and it was decided to hold a liars' contest to determine the "facts" in the case.

This verbal rodeo will come off January 4, at 7:30 p. m. at the Armory. Along with the contest there will be served a luncheon with plenty of smokes on the side. An entrance fee will be charged each aspiring Anselms and a can of dubbin with two swabs will be awarded the fortunate winner.

Reverable leather coats, tweed lined, can be worn either side out, they are 40 inches in length. Worn by both men and women. They are very popular this season and don't cost much. We sold them last year at $65.00. The new price is $27.50 and a much better coat. We sell for cash only—that's one reason you pay less here. Another reason is, we are out of the high rent district, no idle clerks and no fancy fixtures.

FIRE SWEEPS 18,000

ACRES GRAZING LAND NEAR WAGON MOUND

SANTA FE—A grass fire starting at the Laguna Salado-Mora road and extending twelve miles to the Rio Ocate devastated 18,000 acres of grazing land chiefly on the pastures of the Blatman Bloom Cattle company, according to word received.

Half the population of the town of Wagon Mound turned out to fight the fire and managed to restrict its spread.

BOY SCOUTS TROOP No. 2

The troop now numbers 18 and more members are promised. At a meeting last Friday the charter was officially received by the troop.

Mr. James Igo, a patient at Fort Bayard was a visitor at the troop headquarters and offered a prize for the boy making the best progress between now and the first of February.

Within the next week the flag staff which was donated to the troop by Mr. Ed. Moran will be erected at the corner of Cedar and Platinum and then the colors will be displayed daily.

Thursday last was set as the day for examinations for the tests for advancement to Tenderfoot, Second Class Scouts and First Class Scouts.

We ask the public to kindly co-operate with the scout officials and report any kind acts performed by the members, so they may receive the proper merits for these acts.

NEW LIVESTOCK TRADING ACT GOES INTO EFFECT
